MONDAY: ARRIVAL IN CASABLANCA

---

Dinner and overnight

ACCOMMODATIONS: Le Casablanca hotel

TUESDAY: CASABLANCA, FEZ

---

Tour begins in Casablanca at 9:00 am. Visit the Jewish Museum, following which we will travel to Meknes, known as the Moroccan Versailles. Among the sites we will see are the olive market, the Jewish market, the royal stables, and the famous Bab El Mansour, the building of which began in the reign of the ruler Moulay Ismail. Although this formerly great Jewish city is only a shadow of itself, the Jewish community continues to function and we will visit the synagogue currently in use. We then travel to Fez, the most extensive medieval city in the Arab world. At one time Fez was the center of Jewish life in Morocco and it remained the capital city of Morocco until 1925. A Jewish community still remains here and we will visit one of its synagogues and do a panoramic tour of the city before dinner.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Sahrai Hotel, Fez

WEDNESDAY: FEZ

---

We will visit all the important sites of Fez, including the Medina, where we will see craftsmen working as they have done for centuries, the Mellah (Jewish quarter), and the Jewish cemetery which to this day is a pilgrimage site, especially the grave of a particular Jewish woman, for reasons we will learn. We will also see Maimonides' house, where he is said to have lived when he came to Fez to escape the Almohad persecution in Spain, the King's Palace, Museum of Wood Arts and Crafts, and the Madrasa Bou Inania.

FRIDAY: CASABLANCA, MARRAKECH

---

In the morning we travel to Marrakech, which for many years was the most important city in Morocco and which had a very large Jewish population. We will tour the Jewish Quarter. We will have time before Shabbat to visit the market and for shopping. Tefillah Friday night will be at one of the local synagogues.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Le Naoura Barriere, Marrakech

SATURDAY: MARRAKECH

---

Tefillah on Shabbat morning will be at the hotel. Later in the day there will be a shiur from Rabbi Kelman and Dr. Shapiro will lead a class focusing on a Moroccan Torah sage. After Shabbat we will go to the famous square of Marrakech. It has to be seen to be believed.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Le Naoura Barriere, Marrakech

MONDAY: MARRAKECH, ESSOUIRA, EL JADIDA, AZEMOUR, CASABLANCA

---

Early departure to Essouira to see the Jewish quarter and the cemetery followed by a look at a local fishing port and locally produced handicrafts. Then we travel to El Jadida, on the coast of Morocco, where we will visit the Portuguese Fortified City, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and the Jewish quarter. Next, we will drive to the city of Azemour. While there are no longer any Jews in Azemour, it remains a place of pilgrimage to the grave of Rabbi Abraham Moul Nis. We will end the day back in Casablanca.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Le Casablanca, Casablanca
